

3-STR///PES FOR LIFE | US OPEN

Golf and gambling friends-

We made it. Major Championship Golf has arrived to our own backyard at Torrey Pines. A course that many of us have played and can 'relate' to just how beautiful and difficult San Diego Golf can be. The ocean breeze. The perfect temperatures. The crashing waves. The groans of a missed 3-footer. Oh, and did I forget? The thrill of a little sports betting!

Feel free to forward to all friends/family who would want in on some US Open action!

Rules.

- Create a roster of up to 10 golfers and up to $40 budget
- Golfers are ranked based on Official World Golf Ranking and the higher the ranking, the more the golfer costs to roster
- Your score is equal to the total $ your team earns in the Tournament. For example, if you had Bryson at the US Open last year, you would have earned $2.25 Million from him alone
- *The website shows a list of players initially registered for the tournament but may not reflect last minute drops.
- After each round the website shows projected standings though the only payout will be for final results after Tournament is over

Payout.

- $20/Entry, as many entries as you'd like ($1 of the $20 goes to the website hosting fee)
 - If we get 50 entries or less
 - 1st | 50%
 - 2nd | 30%
 - 3rd | 20%
 - If we get over 50 entries, I'll send out the payout breakdown on Thursday, once all payments have been collected.
- Pick and payment deadline is Thursday, June 17th @ 7:00 am Pacific
 - Unpaid entries by deadline will be deleted
- Payment methods (remember to include your entry name so I know who has paid and who hasn't)
 - Venmo: @Kade-Wilmarth
 - PayPal: GolfKade@gmail.com (friends and family option so there is no fee)

As always, here is a free little expert tip.

Expert Tip: Look my predictions this year have been uhh... brutal to say the least. A first time Major Winner in Hideki and the oldest Major Champion in Phil have made for a highly unpredictable Major Golf season! With that said, I'm ready to get back my X factor. That's right, Xander Schauffele is taking this tournament down. 5-3-6-5 are his last four US Open results, and he just finished T2 at Torrey earlier this year. Pair that with him being a local AND wearing the Badge of Sport, he's going to SUSTAIN our hot streak and bring home the victory (fortunately, it's not too long of a trip for him to get home).
